US Customs Police

8-6-19

988, Border Patrol, US Customs,

Reporting Officer was requested to assist with the Pelee Islander when it arrived. They advised they had a female, who on 8-5-19 who stated she was in the US illegally, and was a Canadian citizen. They said she boarded the Pelee to Canada with a male who claimed to be her messenger of God protector.

Customs and Boarder Patrol advised that Canada refused the female entry and she was not a citizen. They held her overnight and placed her back on the Pelee to return to the US. The male with her, Roi Atohi Sigbjorn Voyce, previously known as Scott Lee Voice, was causing problems and was held and rejected entry also.

When the Pelee arrived, Agents and this Officer entered the ship and located the two. Both were told they were being removed and detained due to the mentioned issues. I was assisting with the escort of Voyce and he began arguing with Customs agent Potts. He was told several times what was taking place and to keep walking. Once on the pier Voyce stopped again and was arguing and Potts took him by the right arm and told him he was being escorted. Voyce pulled his arm away from Potts and stating don't touch me and when Potts took ahold of his arm again, Voyce said "I'm going to hit you", pulled his arm away again and turned at Potts. I took ahold of his left arm to take him into custody and Boarder Patrol agents came from behind and Voyce was taken to the ground. He continued to struggle and was placed into handcuffs and secured. Voyce was taken into their building and spoken to where he continued to yell and argue with the agents.

It was decided that Voyce would be charged with Menacing on Agent Potts, and resisting arrest. He was taken to ECSO and still argued he was not going to do anything they told him to do. Their staff to control of Voyce and he was taken into the jail.

The female, Helen Saetre-Balkhar, was taken into custody without incident and transported to Port Clinton for further questioning. All property the two had was taken by Customs to be held. Voyce's passport was going to be looked into as he had changed his name, and his prior name has a lengthy CCH.
